AIHEC      WHO WE ARE      WHO WE SERVE      WHAT WE DO      OUR STORIES

news   meetings   spotlight   students   TCUs

The nation's Tribal Colleges and Universities (TCUs), which are the American Indian Higher Education Consortium (AIHEC), stand, kneel, pray, and act with our Black brothers and sisters and all who are oppressed and have felt the dehumanizing impact of racism, invisibility and hate. We send our condolences and prayers to the families of Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery, and George Floyd and all the families whose loved ones are unnamed. We share your fight and your burden. We will not rest until together, we overcome the systemic, generational and unending brutality practiced against people of color under the authority of those who are sworn to serve and protect.

The American Indian College Fund (collegefund.org/programs)

The screenshot shows the website for the American Indian College Fund. At the top, there is a dark red navigation bar with "Donate Now" and social media icons (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram) on the left, and "Contact Us", "Careers", and "Financials" on the right. Below this is the organization's logo, "AMERICAN INDIAN COLLEGE FUND" with the tagline "EDUCATION IS THE ANSWER". A secondary navigation menu includes "About Us", "Our Purpose", "You Can Help", "For Students", "Our Impact", a "DONATE" button, and a search icon. The main content area features a large banner with the heading "Our Programs" and the sub-heading "College Fund Initiatives". The banner is composed of four images: a group of people working on a project, a woman looking at a tablet, and hands working with wooden sticks. Below the banner is a section titled "About Our Programs" with the text: "The College Fund support TCUs in their efforts to strengthen education, Native communities, the environment, health and wellness, language and". To the right of this text is a photo of a group of diverse students smiling, with the text "EDUCATION IS THE ANSWER" overlaid on the image.

NASA Minority University Research and Education Project (MUREP)

( www.nasa.gov/stem/murep/projects/ )
